“ So sad to hear of Mary Jo's passing. I knew she had been unwell for quite awhile and had tried to find out where she was and how to contact her but always came up against a brick wall in my search. Mary Jo and I were active in the Spokane Youth Symphony for many years, she much longer than I. She introduced me to my first opera with the Opera Buffs on a trip to Sandpoint. She was one of the kindest souls I have known and was always anxious to hear what my son, Sean Barker was up to in his musical life. I wish I could have told her that he took me to Vienna to see the opera Rosenkavalier by Richard Strauss. She would have been thrilled for us. Mary Jo will be greatly missed in so many ways and she will always be in my memories of our time together with the Youth Symphony and every time I go to an opera. My deepest sympathies go to her family. Wende Barker
