

Aldo Mizzoni

February 16, 1919 - December 28, 2014

Aldo Mizzoni, 95, former long-time resident of Las Vegas, passed away peacefully Dec. 28, 2014, at home in Medical Lake, Wash. Aldo, known by his family and friends as "The Best in the West," was a man who loved life and embraced all it had to offer. He was born Feb. 16, 1919, in Scifelli, Italy to Angelina DeCarolis and Giovanni Mizzoni. They immigrated to Toronto, Canada in 1928. In 1941, Aldo married the love of his life, Angelina Pasquino. Together they had seven beautiful children. In 1960, Aldo moved his family to the United States in search of better opportunities. He was a 54-year resident of Las Vegas and long-time member of the Heat and Frost Insulators & Asbestos Workers, Local 135. Aldo was a self-taught man with a thirst for knowledge and a love of history, especially Ancient Rome. Aldo taught his family what it means to work hard, love deeply and enjoy every moment. Family and friends will remember him as a man who loved digging in the garden, smoking a great cigar, enjoying a glass of wine, and always welcoming them with open arms. Aldo was preceded in death by his wife, Angelina; son, Mark; and son-in-law, Bill Jewett. He is survived by his six children, John (JoAnne), Lou (Sue), Raymond (Cecelia), Janet (Raul) Valerie and Virgil (Christy); daughter-in-law, Lisa; adopted son, Frank and his wife, Belinda; 14 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren; and countless nieces and nephews. His life will be celebrated Saturday, Feb. 14, at the Cheney Funeral Home, Cheney, WA.
