

Arturo Garcia

October 5, 1950 - March 7, 2023

Arturo Garcia was born October 5, 1950, in Harrington, Texas, and passed away on March 7, 2023, in Cheney, WA.

Art leaves behind his wife of 25 years, Dana Garcia, grandchildren Alexis Garcia, Sophia Garcia, Jasmyn Cunningham, and Tierra Cunningham as well as two stepdaughters, Kellie Cunningham, and Kimberly Price. Arturo is survived by his sisters Ninfa Garza, Linda Martinez, Mary Valencia, and Jodie Samples. Art was preceded in death by his sons Andres and Rene, his mother Olivia Samples, his sister Lupe Hernandez, and brother John Samples.

Art served and retired from the USAF, then went into chemical dependency counseling.

A Memorial Service will be held Friday, April 28, 2023, at 1:45 pm at the Washington State Veterans Cemetery, 1702 W. Espanola Rd, Medical Lake, WA, 99022. A Reception will follow in the basement at St. John's Lutheran Church, 223 S. Hallett St., Medical Lake, Washington 99022.

Cemetery Details

Washington State Veterans Cemetery

21702 W Espanola Rd.
Medical Lake, WA 99022

Previous Events

Memorial Service

APR 28. 1:45 PM (PT)

Washington State Veterans Cemetery
21702 W Espanola Rd.
Medical Lake, WA 99022

Reception

APR 28. 2:30 PM (PT)

St. John's Lutheran Church
223 S. Hallett St.
Medical Lake, WA 99022

Tribute Wall

VG

“ Fond memories of Arturo from your former wife of 25 years from January 1973 to June 1998, You will be missed by your stepchildren, Nicolas Stefan McTague and Debbie Johnson. You'll be missed also by your 7 grand children and six great-grandchildren who didn't get to meet you. fond memories from your two daughters in law, Demita Mctague, and kristi Cronkite. You will also be missed by your military family where you served 21 1/2 years in the USAF and was always affectionately known as Poncho. Our sons Andre, and the baby Reneé, who is stillborn at six months are already there waiting, God speed
-Valerie Garcia

Valerie Garcia - April 26, 2023 at 08:14 PM

BL

“ Uncle Art, I have all the Dallas Cowboy stuff you gave me when I was young. I plan on keeping it . When I visit Aunt Dana I'll always think of you. R.I.P.

blake lyon - April 20, 2023 at 08:21 PM

EH

“ Uncle art. I will see you again. Thank you for all u done for me. Your wisdom and knowledge is with Me forever

Eric hagan - April 05, 2023 at 06:59 PM