She worked as a benefits coordinator at Guardian Life Insurance, where her coworkers became her lifelong friends. As a Military brat and spouse, Barbara traveled all over the country and the world calling many places her home, with Spokane as her final home since 2006. Barbara lit up any room she entered with her contagious smile and outgoing personality and impacted many lives with her spirit and her love for people. She immensely cared and loved all in her life, always ensuring to end a conversation with a hug and I love you. In her free time, she most enjoyed spending time with her friends, family, and dogs through travel, camping, bowling, and many other adventures. Barbara opened her home and her heart to everyone and her memory will last far beyond her time on this earth. She is survived by her parents James and Mary, in-laws Sonny and JoAnn, spouse David, daughter Laura, Sister Becky, and many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends. “ We were so fortunate when LR picked the Robinsons to be our neighbors. We have no words to describe how were feeling with the loss of our friend. We're relieved that she's not suffering, We're content that heaven has gained another angel and we're upset that she was taken from us way too soon. Our heart breaks for David and Laura. We will miss her texts, her posts, and her calls. Thank you for the many years of friendship and fun memories. We all will miss you forever and always. xoxo

“ Barb, my special friend, I don't even know where to start? I'm so blessed to have had both you and Dave in my life, the many birthdays we shared together, laughs, and amazing times will never be forgotten! Your enthusiasm, wit, and of course charm! You could always make me smile and laugh by what just rolled off of your tongue. You are never gone, always in my heart, never forgotten, always in my mind, and now you have become the true angel you were! I love you my dear friend, fly with the rest of the angels, and please watch over all you loved!

“ I love this family photo. It was just so "real." Barb's a very proud momma, though Lauradoes not look so happy. 😊

I believe that God gives you wings when you are saved, but we don't realize it until He calls you home. We weren't ready, but God was.

The angel reminds me that as we pass into God's kingdom, we are as His children and we have no more sickness, pain or sorrow. We have the of peace God with us all the time. Peace be with you, Barb.

Love you, Sis.

My dear sweet sister-in-law, Barb, I will miss your pretty smile, your pretty eyes (either brown or blue), that giggly laugh and, yes, even your sniffly nose. We haven't always gotten along, but we have always found a way to make up. I'm so glad that we had that wonderful trip to Seattle, just the 2 of us, singing, laughing and talking girl stuff. I so appreciate the way you have loved my brother for so many years. I know he is not always easy to deal with, but you always found a way. Also, blessing him with a beautiful daughter was the best gift you could ever have given him. You both have so many reasons to be proud of Laura. She is smart, friendly, outgoing and reminds me a lot of you at that age. I wish that I could have come to say goodbye, but I am here saying, "Until we meet again." I am secure in knowing that I will meet you in heaven's glory someday. I love you now and always. Rest in God's arms sweet sister. I will meet you there.
