“ He was my children's step grandfather at a major point in their young lives. My mother in law Gladys Olinger married him when he was thirty and we welcomed him into our world. He served in the coast guard with my husband. Gladys is buried in the veterans cemetery on Cape Cod. He left New England with his third wife and unfortunately never contacted us again. May he rest in Peace.

“ An angel whispered take my hand and come with me, your work here is done.
I went away to a place where there is no tears, nor sorrow only laughter and smiles, a place where there will always be a tomorrow. I move amongst the clouds, I look down and smile upon you, while the Angel's sing a heavenly song.... Tim S.
