“ I don't know what happened and I may never know. I do know that I lost a very good friend who I love dearly and will never forget. Especially that big wonderful laugh!! You are truly not replaceable....

love you,
Janice

“ When my previous husband had his second heart attack and the doctors didn't give him much hope I was at Sacred Heart and feeling totally alone. It was late at night and I called Betty Jo to see if she would come sit with me for a while. Betty Jo had trouble driving at night but I am sure she heard the desperation in my voice and drove right in. I don't remember how long she stayed or what was said but she was there for me at one of the darkest times in my life and I no longer felt alone. True love is sacrificial and Betty Jo put my needs above her own. She will be dearly missed.
