“ My dear brother-in-law has passed into God's world. He will be welcomed by so many who have gone before him, including his parents, my parents, my first husband, Bob, and many friends. His pain is OVER....while our pain of missing him has just begun. It is so strange to be in his home and not see him here, but I KNOW his spirit is around me/us everywhere we go. I pray for comfort for all of us left behind that we be able to accept his death as a part of our lives. May we remember him with a SMILE and look to him for guidance when we need guidance and look to EACH OTHER FOR COMFORT IN OUR SENSE OF LOSS. GOD BLESS US ALL.
AMEN
