

Bradley J Blank

March 20, 1963 - October 9, 2021

Bradley J Blank passed away on October 9th, 2021. He was born March 20th, 1963 in Spokane, WA to Bob and Fran Blank from Rosalia, WA. Brad was a sports fanatic and fierce competitor in any sport he played as a youngster, and he was someone you didn't want to be around after a loss. Brad continued his love of sports into adulthood participating in 3 on 3 basketball tournaments, pickup games, and loved Golf. In his later years, he thought it wise to become a spectator and loved to watch both college and professional sports. After graduating from Rosalia High School in 1981 Brad enlisted into the U.S. Army, then spent the remainder of his working career at URM Food Services in Spokane, WA. As his health started to fail, Brad became an avid reader spending countless hours at the Colfax Library, he could also be found walking the main street in Colfax, WA trying to stay in shape. The family would like to thank Paul's Place for taking care of this great guy.

Brad was preceded in death by his mother Fran Blank and is survived by his father Bob, and brother Carl, both from Rosalia. Niece's Abbey Blank (Oakesdale) Jamie Blank (Spokane) Jaci Wotring (Clarkston), and Emily Doneen (Milton Freewater).

A Public Gravesite will be held at the Rosalia I.O.O.F Cemetery on October 23rd at 1:30. With a reception at the Rosalia Community Center afterward. Memorials may be sent to the Rosalia Community Church or Rosalia I.O.O.F

Cemetery.

Brad was a beloved friend of mine. What a darling person! I understood his fire and his complexities and treasured his sweet heart.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Brad's family, I am sincerely saddened by your loss of Brad. Brad and I dated for a little while back in 1999 and I started thinking of him over this last summer about maybe trying to re-connect with him. On Nov 16 I entered his name into google so I could start the journey to try and connect with him again. When I saw that he had recently passed away my heart sank and I was very saddened when I learned this. Brad and I had some good times back when we met and I remember what a big "March Madness" fan he was and how he took off of work from URM the entire week to go watch all of the games. I remember his love for golf and yes his fierce competitive nature. We just were at a different time of our lives and parted ways...but Brad was a good person which is why I wanted to try and re-connect with him at this time of our lives being only a year apart in age. I wish that I had contacted him sooner so that we could have talked and maybe have spent some time together. Once again my heart goes out to his entire family, so so sorry for your loss.
