

Charlotte Mae Wasley

June 26, 1949 - June 18, 2025

Charlotte “Bunny” Mae Wasley, 75, passed away on June 18, 2025, in Spokane, WA. Born on June 26, 1949, Charlotte lived a life marked by independence, kindness, determination, and love for her family.

She pursued higher education at a bible college in Jamestown, North Dakota, where she made lifelong friends. Charlotte’s career was notably spent at Safeway, where she began as a cashier and rose to the position of auditor overseeing a large region. Later, she transitioned to Pearson VUE, marking a significant second career.

She is survived by her sister, Sherry Bleeker; aunt, Charlotte Stark; brother-in-law, Gordon Bleeker, and numerous nieces and nephews, along with great-nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her mother, Lois Slyter, and brother, Larry Wasley.

Charlotte found joy in spending time with family and friends. She enjoyed working in her yard and caring for her beloved kitties. These simple things brought happiness and peace.

A private family service will be held on July 17, 2025, honoring her life and legacy.

Bunny will be missed and remembered fondly by all who knew her
