

David McKinstry

February 24, 2020

Dr. David McKinstry passed peacefully in his sleep, Monday, February 24, 2020. David was a kind and generous man beloved by his family and friends. He leaves behind his wife Donna, his children, David, Megan, Molly and Joshua Foxx. He was a retired physics professor at Eastern Washington University, and was interested in promoting sustainable energy. He also enjoyed sharing 3D movies in his "home theater." David will be remembered as a man of great integrity. A Celebration of Life will be held this summer.
