“ What a neat family. Took (good) care of my sister. I wish the world had more kindness like the Berryhills.

Love and support

“ Dear Family members, What a sad moment for me when I saw that your Beloved had passed. I first met her through her husband Charlie who introduced me to this incredibly beautiful woman "Liz"! I was so struck by her serene countenance and poise. This was probably back in 1977 when she first moved here.

I later found out that her "other" name was Donna and when I would see her at the local grocery stores or just out and about I remember trying hard to call her Donna instead of Liz. At one time she told me "It's ok that "you" call me Liz! So that is how I've always known her. I'm sorry I didn't get to know her well as she seemed like someone who would always bring a shining light and a calm presence to any situation. My sincere condolences on this sad, sad loss.
