He met his wife Kathleen at Montclair High School, and they married on January 23, 1970. They celebrated their 50th anniversary last January. He enjoyed many things but had a love for travel, playing his guitar, music, scuba diving, and spending time with his family and friends. Edward was dedicated to his faith, sang and played guitar in the church choirs at St. Rose of Lima, and Sacred Heart Parishes for over 40 years. It was often heard from those that knew him how he touched their lives, was caring, had a sense of humor and many times referred to him as a big teddy bear.
