She attended basketball, baseball, football games, and track meets regardless of the distance or weather, she was there. She continued this support while attending the games of her grandchildren.

Florence belonged to the Martha Chapter of Eastern Star until it closed and then joined with the Malden Chapter of Eastern Star. She was proud to receive her 50 - year pin and lifetime membership.

“ Florence was an amazing woman! I always enjoyed chatting with her - especially over a harvest lunch! She was fun and full of energy!! I always enjoyed learning a little more history of our beautiful Eastern Washington area from her as well. She will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with the boys and their families.
