“ I loved my Grandfather very much. He loved to fish, and he farmed his whole life. He was a hard working man and did the best he could to provide for his family. He was a strict father but a forgiving grandfather. He served our country and I am proud of that. We will see each other again someday.

I love you and Geandma and can't imagine growing up without you both.

“ I will miss my Great Grandpa Rupp so very much he has helped me become the strong and independent woman I have become. I also seem to have got his stubborn side haha but I also got his loving and understanding side and his way of letting you know everything would be ok. I love him very much and will miss his stories about how he used to love it when I was younger I'd climb on his lap and pull out his check book and pens and he'd try to put them back i would just take them out again. I will miss him dearly and I know we all will. I still look forward to spending lots of time with Grandma Marcelle and seeing Grandpa Rupp in Heaven!
