

Helen Jane Myer

March 11, 1930 - September 11, 2004

Helen Jane Myer, age 74, passed away on September 11, 2004, in Cheney, WA, after a year-long battle with pancreatic cancer.

Helen was born on March 11, 1930, in Omaha, Nebraska, to James Milton Taylor and Francis A. Buckner. Helen graduated from high school in Encampment, Wyoming, in 1948, and eventually moved to Lancaster, CA, where she met her husband, Joseph D. Myer, Jr. They were married on November 27, 1958, after dating for a few short months. Before her death, Helen and Joe had been married for 46 years.

Helen enjoyed being a wife and mother and became proficient with packing and moving several times across the United States due to her husband's job transfers with the Space program, and later Grumman Aerospace and Gulfstream Aerospace. Her hobbies included bowling, golf, ceramics, yard work, and reading before her health started to decline in her later years.

Helen was preceded in death by her parents, James Milton Taylor and Francis A. Buckner. She is survived by her husband Joe, two children, Randy Myer (wife Linda), and Holly Rossey (husband Mike), and grandchildren, Jacob and Jennifer Rossey.
