

Jill Freeze

May 5, 1961 - April 7, 2023

Surrounded by family and close friends, Jill passed away at her home on April 7, 2023. Jill grew up in the Methow Valley, graduating from Pateros HS in 1979. Jill moved to Spokane to pursue her education and passion for rodeo riding. She graduated from Eastern Washington University in Education later completing a Master's Degree at Gonzaga.

Jill moved to Davenport in 1989, spending her career in Education working for Davenport School District. Jill's kindness touched the lives of hundreds of students. She met and married her husband Jon "Frosty" Freeze. They raised two sons. Jill had a great love for horses and riding. She also enjoyed spending time in the Methow Valley. Traveling, camping, and watching sporting events filled her days.

Jill was preceded in death by her father, William Wagoner. She is survived by her husband, Jon Freeze, sons, Trenton Briney, Ty (Jessica) Freeze, and granddaughter McKenzie. Her mother Betty Wagoner and brother Dan (Maria) Wagoner.

“ Jill had made such a difference in so many children's lives, so full of energy and kind hearted! I had the privilege to work next to her in the office when she was the Grade school principal. There will be no one close to fill her shoes with the endless days she spent at the school activities helping Anywhere she was needed. You will truly be missed Jill. My thoughts and prayers are with all of the family. 🙏

“ Jill had an intense affect on my life. In 2007, she convinced me to join the Special Education unit @ Davenport Elementary. The result was the best of the best over the next five years. In the education system you find many uninspired, apathetic individuals. But Jill was one of those rare gems that always placed the children's best interests first, even ahead of her own. Her inspiration and dedication to the children shined at a level brighter than most educators ever achieve. The children lost a great advocate when Mrs Freeze no longer walked their school hallways. My heart and thoughts are with her family during this sad sad time. 😭
