

Joan Lee Harris

August 18, 1939 - October 15, 2021

Born in Everett Washington, Joan was the second child of her parents William F. and Harriet I. Gaufin. Except for a few years living in California, she lived her life in Washington state. She was married for over 54 years to Clark V Harris (1937-2013) And is survived by her two children, Steven Harris (Shelly) and Michelle (Dale) Roberts her grandchildren Nicole (Adam) Admire, Marc (Sarah) and Rachel Harris, her great grandchildren, Andrew, Austin, Brielle, Bailey and Addisyn Joan Admire, and her sister Shirley Ann of Belfair, Washington.

Joan worked hard to impress on her children the importance of having a strong faith in God. She loved all aspects of God's great and beautiful creation. This included her love of flowers and gardening and even talking to little animals who would visit in the yard. Joan played the piano and the cello as a young women. She worked in a grocery store and for the postal service for many years. For those friends, acquaintances, coworkers and customers,who encountered her, Joan was endlessly engaged in conversations and seemed to always leave them with the feeling of her enthusiastic, and friendly disposition.
