

Judith Ann Edwards

June 3, 1952 - November 23, 2016

EDWARDS, Judith Ann (McGill)

Of Cheney, WA went to be with our Heavenly Father on Wednesday, November 23rd 2016. Judi is preceded in death by her father Kenneth McGill, stepfathers Erven Feickert and Norman Peterson. She is survived by her loving husband Richard Edwards of Cheney, WA, mother Esther Peterson of Cheney, WA, brother Gary McGill and his wife Bobbe of Bellingham, WA, stepdaughters Amanda Asher and her husband Ryan of Hauser, ID and Heidi Monter and her husband Justin of Cheney, WA granddaughters Colbie, Kaydee and Haylie Monter, grandsons Kolson and Kamden Asher. Judi, was born in Oroville, CA on June 3rd 1952. In June 1970, she graduated Sealth High School in Seattle, WA and went on to pursue higher education at Highline Community College in Midway, WA. Judi met Rick in a dance hall and they were married on May 19th, 1988. They spent the next 28 years dancing together. She worked as an administrative assistant for Haakon Industries in Cheney, WA for 20.5 years. Judi attended Four Lakes Community Church with her family and had a deep faith and love for God. Judi enjoyed sports and played several during her years. One of her favorite pastimes was reading and she could often be found with a good book in hand. Judi loved spending time on the water and spent many hours fishing, reading, and relaxing on their boat on the local lakes. She loved to bake and made delicious fudge that friends and family looked forward to around the holidays. She also enjoyed creating hand made greeting cards. Judi cherished time spent with her five grandchildren; crafting, playing games, laughing, and just being silly. She donated her time helping organize the Cheney Rodeo and Parade. She was named the Justin Boots Rodeo Committee Member of the year for 2015. She will be most remembered by her beautiful smile and contagious laugh. Funeral services will be held at 10:00 am on Saturday, December 10th, 2016 at the Cheney Community Church in Cheney, WA with Pastor Steve Powers officiating.

“Michelle and I were shocked to hear of the news of Judy's passing. Our condolences and prayers to Rick, the girls and their families. Judy was a wonderful colleague and friend during my time at Haakon. She always made me smile with her funny stories and infectious smile. We enjoyed getting to know Rick and the girls over the years and shared much fun and laughter. Thank You Judy for all the great memories. Rest in peace.
