

Keith Courtney Stack

November 2, 1924 - April 4, 2015

Keith Courtney (K.C.) Stack (age 90) of Edwall, WA, passed away April 4, 2015 at his home. He was born in Spokane on November 2, 1924, to Michael Garret Stack (Gary) and Olive (McQuillan) Stack. The family farmed in the Edwall area on land homesteaded in 1884 by his Irish immigrant grandparents, Michael and Hanna (Courtney) Stack. In 1946, K.C. married an Edwall girl, Inez Polenske, and farmed this same land for 40 years, retiring in 1986. While K.C. was a lifelong farmer, for 20 years he served as a board member and president of the Production Credit Association and a board member of the Federal Land Bank. He was also very active in the community as the charter president of the Edwall Lions Club, founding member and president of the Edwall Chemical Corp. (now AgLink), board member and president of the Edwall Grain Growers, and church board member. K.C. was an avid fisherman and hunter. He is survived by his three children; Cristi (John) Eaton, Suzi (Allen, decd.) Arndt and David (Wendy) Stack, eight grandchildren and four great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife Inez in July of 2005, and son Barney in February of 1970. A funeral service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, April 18, at Cheney Funeral Chapel, 1632 W. First St., in Cheney. Burial will follow at the Edwall Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

CC

“ Over the last 6 years I really enjoyed talking and visiting with you and your family. Will miss coming out to see you when I visit Washington.

Chris and Sally Cline - April 13, 2015 at 07:57 AM

TC

“ Sorry to hear of your loss. Praying for you.

Tiffany Carstens-Abell - April 10, 2015 at 09:07 PM