

Kenneth George Clark

March 25, 1939 - December 24, 2017

Kenneth George Clark was born on March 25, 1939 and went to heaven on December 24, 2017 to join his beloved son Peter Clark and so many more that went before him. He leaves behind his loving wife Clara Clark of 55 years as well as his children Lee Rupp, Rod Clark, Susan Thomas and Aaron Clark. Ken was a very loving husband and amazing father. He was a mentor to so many. He taught U.S. History and driver's education at 29 Palms High School, California and Cheney High School in Washington. He was also a football, wrestling, baseball, and debate coach. Many of his students referred to him as "BIG DOG". He taught students for 35 years of his life. He was a friend to so many people and was always there to listen and help students however he could. He loved spending time with family, playing cribbage, listening to music, and reading a good book. He loved to watch his favorite NFL team, the New England Patriots. He had an amazing relationship with the Lord and is now at peace with our Lord and Savior.
