Laurie Jo Harrison Bowman, daughter of Dave and Norma Harrison of Vancouver, Wash, passed away on Oct 14, 2021. Laurie was born on Sept 21, 1960, at Coulee Dam, Wash.

She spent her early years of grade school at Davenport, Wash., enjoying Little League games, the swimming pool, twirling her baton, and going to basketball games with friends. She liked taking baton lessons with her big sis and delighted in many escapades with her brother, Karl.

Laurie spent her junior high and high school years at Heppner, Ore, where she participated in volleyball, basketball, and track as well as cheerleading with her sister, Kelly, rooting for the Heppner Mustangs.

Laurie made her home in Medical Lake where she took pride in the fact that she attended every single sporting event for son, Christian, who went to school there.
