

Leonard Aaron Ralph

April 15, 1946 - April 5, 2019

Leonard Aaron Ralph was born on April 15, 1946 in Spokane, WA. Surrounded by his loving family, Leonard went home to be with his Lord and Savior on April 5, 2019 in Cheney, WA. With a heart for God and an unwavering faith, Leonard knew Jesus would always see him through life's difficult journeys. Leonard lived out his faith every day, and proclaimed the love of Jesus to his family, friends and clients. He is survived by his wife of 48 years, Carolynn Ralph (Haskins). Leonard was born to Wesley Aaron Ralph and Beatrice Louise Ralph (Lozar) and graduated from Cheney High School in 1964. From there he went on to proudly serve his country in the Army. Following his time in the service, Leonard worked for Leo's Photography Studio where he shot school, graduation, and numerous wedding photos. Soon after, Leonard graduated from barber school, and later became a master barber and cosmetologist. He excelled at his craft and became a certified national instructor, as well as a coach for the Washington State Hairstyling team. Building a successful barbering business for the next 50 years, he established long lasting relationships, strong friendships, and most importantly he was able to meet people where they were in their lives, and share his testimony and his heart for God. Having to retire due to health issues at the age of 70, he spent his remaining years with his wife Carolynn who was his best friend, his children, and grandchildren, studying and reading his bible, and watching Gonzaga basketball. Leonard is survived by his devoted wife Carolynn. Also his children; Amy J. King (Norman), Aaron M. Ralph, Errica L.

Ralph (William), Jessica L. Perryman (Michael), grandchildren; Blaine, Harrison, Skyler, Isabella, Tanisha, Joe, Austin, Thomas and Cory, great-grandchildren; Kendal and Sterling, his brother Richard Ralph, and sister Jeannie Kopp. Leonard was preceded in death by his parents Wesley and Beatrice, and his brother Timothy Ralph. A Graveside service will be held at Marshall Cemetery on Saturday, April 13th, 2019 at 1:00 pm.
