

Lloyd Leonard Lasz

April 24, 1931 - February 12, 2021

Lloyd Leonard Lasz was born April 24, 1931, in Rockford Washington to Hannah and August Lasz. He passed away peacefully on February 12, 2021, at the age of 89, from old age, while surrounded by family. He was the youngest of 3 boys, including Bill and Walter, who both preceded him in death. Lloyd graduated in 1949 from Fairfield High School. In 1952, he joined the Air Force Reserves, and he served for 2 years while stationed in Alaska. In the fall of 1954, he met Virginia Carol Rambo in Tekoa, Washington. They married on December 9th of that same year. Lloyd and Virginia had 3 children, Raymond (Linda), Lois (Vern), and Leonard (Sandy). He was preceded in death by Raymond in 1995. Their 66 years together were spent on the family farm near Fairfield, Washington where countless others have enjoyed the freedom of farm life and learned to work. Over the years, they also helped raise many others who also consider them Mom and Dad. The family grew from 3 children to 8 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. Many cats and dogs lived the high life with him as he fed them better than most. Lloyd was a master storyteller and loved to talk for hours. All who knew him can retell a story of his. Loved and not forgotten, we now lay to rest this one-of-a-kind, head urchin, maker of orange quilts, and Grandpa to so many. Private services were held February 16th, and donations can be made in his honor to the Fairfield Cemetery in Fairfield, WA.
