Known for her beautiful music, Lois began playing piano for weddings and church at age 14. “ Dear Veral and Yvonne, Cynthia, Patricia and families,
Your wife and mother was truly a woman of gentle grace. Like her mother before her she was an example to me as a young girl growing up. As I thought of Lois this last week, this scripture fragment came to mind: "Surely good and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life"... As Lois has passed through this life, indeed, the fragrance of goodness and mercy flows out behind her as a blessing to all and a testimony to the One she most resembled, her Lord Jesus.
We rejoice with you at her home going and mourn with you your loss of a truly precious trophy of God's grace.
Sincerely, Sandi (Van Dorn) Fulton and family
