

Margaret G. Fischer

September 8, 1923 - July 29, 2016

Margret G. (Rosenzweig) Fischer passed away quietly on Friday, July 29, 2016 surrounded by family. Margret was born to Carl and Helene Rosenzweig on September 8, 1923 on a homestead near Cheney, Washington. She married James D. Fischer, Sr. on April 12, 1958. Margret was preceded in death by her parents, eight brothers and sisters, and her husband, James D. Fischer. She is survived by her daughter Marti Lockwood and husband Phil, daughter Peggy Haslebacher and husband Dan, son Jim Fischer and wife Rhonda, her five grandchildren, Alli Geenen, Brittany Lockwood-Richmond, Micah Fischer, Chris Haslebacher, Katie Haslebacher and great granddaughter, Quinn Geenen, in addition to numerous nieces and nephews. Margret spent her entire life in Cheney. She graduated from Eastern Washington State College with a BA in Education. She also held various jobs throughout her life including Cheney city clerk, St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church secretary, teachers aide at Cheney Junior High, and even doing medical record stenography for the Seattle Seahawks the first years they held training camp in Cheney. However, her true calling was being Mom and Grandma to not only her family but also, anyone who met her. She will truly be missed, but never forgotten. "What we once enjoyed and deeply loved, we can never lose, for all that we loved deeply becomes a part of us." — Helen Keller.
