

Margaret Johanna Fronabarger

May 5, 1919 - August 25, 2017

Margaret Johanna Fronabarger passed away August 25th in Spokane, WA. She was born May 5, 1919 in Chehalis, WA to Fred and Johanna Wendling. She was the second of six children. Margaret moved with her family to Nile Lake at a young age and attended a one room school house. Putting up hay in the summer and cutting ice blocks from the lake in the winter were just a few of things she helped her family with on the farm. She loved gardening and always had beautiful flower beds. When the family moved to town she started work for Pacific NW Bell as a switchboard operator. She worked there until she met and married Guy (Tex) Fronabarger on April 10, 1948. They lived in Colville raising three children. Guy passed away in 1990. Not long after that she moved to Spokane to be closer to her daughter. She loved having her grandchildren around and telling them stories of when she was young. Margaret was preceded in death by her husband Guy and son Robert "Bob". She is survived by her daughters, Gyla (George) Delbridge of Spokane, and Betty (John) Doppenberg of Colville. Sisters, Bertha Calhoun (Olympia), Hilda Weaver (Colville) and brother Fred Wendling (Renton). Plus grand and great-grandchildren. The family would like to thank all the staff at Cornerstone for the loving care they provided Margaret during her stay there. She considered Cornerstone Court home. There will be a Celebration of Life at Cheney Church of the Nazarene on Friday, September 15, at 1:00 p.m.
