

Peyton Celine-Ann Patterson

December 11, 2008 - January 1, 2025

Peyton Celine-Ann Patterson was born in Everett, Washington, on December 11, 2008, and passed away on January 1, 2025.

She was a beloved student of Cheney High School, where despite health complications, she maintained an honor roll GPA.

Peyton is survived by her parents, Erin and Terry Patterson, three sisters, Phoenyxx, Cadynce, and Shyan Patterson, and three brothers, Bodhi Patterson, Gabriel Harper, and (Isaiah) Nikolas Carnell.

Peyton was an incredible artist with aspirations to become an art therapist after school. Those who knew Peyton would describe her as smart, funny, sassy, and kind to all. How lucky were the ones who caught a glimmer of Peyton's bright light, for it burned out far too soon. Forever 16. Rest in peace, sweet girl.

“ Peyton was a brilliantly talented person and she was always bringing Joy to everyone around her. She was loved by all over her friends and would be a fun person to just be around. I was friends with her Sence 7th grade and we bonded over the years more and more, She truly was a light of happiness. ”

“ Peyton knew just how to care and provide laughter to those around her. She had such a loving heart even for those that didn't deserve her lovingness. The bonds she had with people were like no other, they couldn't ever compare. She had such a beautiful smile, making her laugh was what always made my day. She was an empathetic and beautiful soul.

“Peyton is one of the strongest and bravest people I know. She overcame things most adults would struggle with and no matter how hard or unpleasant things got at times, Peyton never lost her light and her beautiful infectious smile. She had a wicked sense of humor and a pure loving heart. I am proud to know Peyton, to be her auntie and so very thankful for the time I had with her... she was such a good person, she had so much to offer this world... and it feels so much emptier without her.

Peyton was my adopted grandchild lol not by blood but she melted my heart the moment I met her. Thank you Terry for bringing her over to play with Anna and Erykah and enjoyed the day the dad helping the kiddos carve pumpkins I think there was 9 of them on my front room floor that day oh what fun. Then you bring the kids for my birthday bash and she stopped at the gate and pick flowers to give me. I am honored to have been graced with her presences so sweet she will be missed for sure. Rest In Paradise Beautiful.
