

Ronald Randall

August 23, 1939 - September 7, 2017

Ronald Randall was born in Spokane, WA on August 23, 1939 to Edward Randall and Emajeane Zentzis. He passed away peacefully in his sleep at Holy Family Hospital on September 7, 2017. He is survived by his wife Charlotte; his children Ron Thompson, Brian Randall, Kevin Randall (Andrea), and Tracy Martin (Mike); stepdaughter Christie Gambill Siewell, stepson Jeremy Gambill. Also surviving are thirteen grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. Ron retired from the US Navy after 20 years of service. He was a Diver on the first Navy Seal team in Vietnam and later worked as an Electrician. After retiring from the Navy, he worked for Westinghouse. He retired from Kaiser Aluminum where he worked as an Electrician and retired from the Mead School District where he worked as a Janitor. He was a Stock Car racing enthusiast who enjoyed the thrill of racing and also enjoyed watching. One of his last trips was to Talladega where he was able to experience the excitement with his son's Brian and Kevin. Ron loved with his whole heart and was always willing to lend a helping hand. He brought so much joy to everyone who knew him. He will be sadly missed by his family and friends. A graveside funeral service will be held at 11:15 a.m., on Friday October 13, 2017, at the Washington State Veterans Cemetery, 21702 W Espanola Rd, Medical Lake, WA 99022.
