“ I knew Gerry growing up in St. John and met Ruth when they moved to Cheney. Loved them both. Loved it when she told me one time that she was a Nordstrom girl who met and fell in love with a JC Penney kind of guy!

“ Ruth, Gerry, and Jennifer have always been wonderful backyard neighbors. Letting us know when our cattle were out and their appeared to be a problem. They didn't even get mad when the cattle munched on their plants. Ruth is now able to rejoin Gerry. Our deepest sympathy to the family. Allen and Lois Bremner

Sorry to hear about Ruth. I first met her when Gerald came to Winona. She was such a beautiful lady. My Mom, LaVerne Scheuerman Despain was Gerald's first cousin. His parents lived in Winona at the time. Cherish your memories. Georgia Despain Wells
